NASCAR STREET STOCK RACE RECAP, JULY 22, 1989

KIRBY AND HAYDEN SCORE STREET STOCK WINS

John Kirby posted his second 1989 NASCAR street stock oval main triumph and former division champion bryan Hayden won the figure 8 feature in his first night of racing for this year.

In the 25-lap oval event, Steve Nickolai ran side-by-side with pole sitter Greg Benner for the first lap and a half before taking over to lead lap number two. Shortly thereafter, Kirby moved up to second to challenge Nickolai for the lead but Nickolai held off Kirby throughout most of the race. Coming out of turn four on the 21st lap, Kirby went to the inside of Nickolai and took the lead entering turn one. Nickolai stayed close however and on the final lap nearly overtook Kirby who got sideways coming out of turn four. Kirby held on for a one-half car-length victory. Fast qualifier Rick Crow was a close third with Benner fourth and Eric Foster fifth.

For the 15-lap figure 8 finale, Kirby sat on the pole and took the lead at the start while Tim Staubs moved up to second. Staubs ran the first lap and a half barely keeping control of the car before spinning into a tire marker in turn two. With Staubs slowing the field behind him Kirby raced out to a huge lead by the end of lap two. In the following laps, Kirby's main pursuers became Crow followed by Russ Beckers and Hayden. When Crow dropped out on lap nine it left only Beckers and Hayden to run down Kirby. By lap eleven, Kirby's lead was gone and a lap later when he slowed at the intersection both Beckers and Hayden raced by. Beckers held the lead until the last lap when he took a wide line around the intersection allowing Hayden to make it into turn three first and come around for the win. Kirby and Beckers ran in a dead heat to the line in which the position was given to Kirby. Jim Marlewski was fourth with Nickolai fifth.
